Half to two thirds of the signal is drug x target interaction, and it is low rank